

Walking the streets of Cortona

A journey to discover Cortona - the ancient city of Etruscan origin - walking its narrow streets and wide squares.

The visit includes an explanation of the principal squares, the Cathedral of Santa Maria and the ancient Church of San Francesco. In addition to the city's historic and artistic wonders, this visit also provides the opportunity to learn about the local enogastronomic traditions and traditional crafts in the city.

Duration of tour: 1 hr 30 min.

Cost: € 15 per person (children under 12 free)

Minimum number of participants: 3 adults

Info and reservations: tel: 0575.637223 (Mon. Tues. Wed. 9:00 am - 1:00 pm; Thurs. Fri. 2:00 pm - 6:00 pm); email: infocortona@comune.cortona.ar.it

Cortona amid Art and Wine – Tour of the MAEC museum (Museo dell'Accademia Etrusca e della Citta di Cortona)

A walk through the halls of Cortona's Museum of the Accademia Etrusca to discover the ancient artifacts which chart the traditions of local wine through time.

The ancient Etruscans imported and produced wine to cheer their banquet tables. The exhibition spaces of the MAEC conserve priceless objects both from the area and from far away lands.

Among the most precious pieces we find the Tabula Cortonensis, the document in which a tract of land slated for vineyards is mentioned.

Duration of tour: 1 hr and 30 min.

Cost: € 15 per person (children under 12 free). Does not include entry ticket

Minimum number of participants: 3 adults

Info and reservations: tel: 0575.637223 (Mon. Tues. Wed. 9:00 am - 1:00 pm; Thurs. Fri. 2:00 pm - 6:00 pm); email: infocortona@comune.cortona.ar.it
